• DeKalb County began in Masonry in 1831, with Liberty 77, Smithville. Onessimus Evans, a Past Master of this Lodge, became the first Master of Washington Lodge 1 of Fayetteville, Arkansas, chartered by the Grand Lodge of Tennessee, as 82. In 1838, the Grand Lodge of Arkansas was organized. The Lodge was organized by Archibald Yell, Grand Master of Tennessee. Alexandria 175, 1849, DeKalb 358 at Liberty, 1858, and Short Mountain 373, 1868, are also in the County. Smith's Fork Lodge 352 at Lancaster survived 1867-1932. Two Royal Arch Chapters failed, Alexandria 50, 1859-1900, and Smithville 110, 1874-1885. Alexandria Council 26 expired in 1880.
